

classymarty@github.io

For more details

MARTIN GROBBELAAR

Educator and Project Manager

Experienced Project Manager turned educator with a passion for empowering others through knowledge transfer. Skilled in developing engaging training programs that enhance performance. Adaptable to diverse audiences, creating collaborative learning environments for skill development and knowledge sharing

Key Skills

Exceptional communication skills - adept at delivering engaging, interactive training programs to diverse audiences

Highly adaptable teaching style - tailors content and facilitation to meet the needs of each unique learning environment

Creative problem-solver - develops innovative learning experiences that keep students motivated and on track

Strong leadership in the classroom - guides discussions, manages group projects, and inspires students to excel

Emotionally intelligent approach - shows empathy, patience and the ability to relate to students' needs

Collaborative team player - works effectively with other educators to align on curriculum and provide a cohesive learning experience

Skilled at identifying and troubleshooting challenges - helps students overcome obstacles and master the material

Education

Currently studying with the University of The People

140 hr TEFL with Cambridge

Various I.T. Industry-related technical qualifications

Work History

Internationally spanning project management for our local Municipality, Sagem and a property management company

Technical support and skills transfer in a few companies

Teaching online for the last 8 years